

Goodbye – Jay Memory

Won't be the last time I say goodbye
Walk out the door for a little "me time"
Don't worry baby I will make it home to you
Singin' a home-sick brand new tune

I don't wanna go
But, babe by now you know
Revelation awaits me

So hug my neck and wish me well
For I expect to face my hell
Before the "light of love" can shine
I need communion, I'm leavin' tonight

I don't wanna go
But, babe by now you know
Revelation awaits me

Look in my eyes
There's no surprise
Our love is worth saving
I'm lonely tonight
And try as you might
Girl cannot save me

I've got the "Good Book" and a full tank of gas
I have redemption from a wretched past
I'm gonna drive past the point of understanding
Set up camp ya'll at the edge of new beginnings

So if you love me – let me go
I will return with a super-natural glow
Dry your eyes and a kiss goodbye
I need a long drive - Under the big sky
Where all the answers they become so clear!

(Look in my eyes – no surprise)

So take a long look into my eyes
I am in need of some still and quiet
Our love is multiplied
Every time we choose to say goodbye

Goodbye. Goodbye.
