

The Real Deal

Thought I found it in my youth
Something approximating truth
I can't believe I fell so hard
A fool in wicked wind will fall apart
Every sinful stage I stumbled through
All the while were leading me to You

I know the Real Deal now
I know the Real Deal now
Circumstance has made it clear no doubt
Real describes the Deal that's going down now

Held the hand of dark travails
Waded through the mire to no avail
I thought I held the keys to my own release
None of my excursions brought me peace
Every chaotic crossroad I came to
All the while were leading me to You

I know the Real Deal now
I know the Real Deal now
Circumstance has made it clear no doubt
Real describes the Deal that's going down now

Now before I just "waltz off into the blue"
I'm on my knees listening to You
Side by side with You
Listening to You
Listening to You

You are the Real Deal – You are my Real Deal now – Hallelujah.
